^ Note that seasons 1-4 from 2006-2009 contained less games per season and therefore any player who played during those seasons had less opportunities to score in all career categories than anyone playing from 2010 and on. Also not that years played can include incomplete seasons and only reflects that the player played at least 1 game that year.

*During the 2006 season of the PHL singles were not recorded, therefore total career singles as well as total carrier points recorded as a player's official stats may be higher than listed if they played during the 2006 season.

•Doubles were not recorded as a stat until the 2009 PHL season, therefore total career doubles recorded as a players official stats may be higher than listed if they played anytime from 2006-2008.

~Known Games lists the numbers of games officially recorded for the individual player as games played statistics were not recorded until 2012. No career averages can be officially calculated for anyone who played between 2006-20011.
